

Fiction Books	For	Pros	Cons	You need to know
Learning Ally (Formerly RFB&D)	Entire books K-12	Free! Real human voice, Model of fluency and reading speed, free daisy player or you can use windows media player, can play files on specific mp3 players, free at home. iPad app for $20	Limited number of downloads. No text only audio, you may need tech support	Software must be downloaded and installed. You must be able to download book files. You have to have an internet connection to RFB&D while you listen to your book (unless you have a CD). You must have a Daisy player or the latest version of Windows media player. http://www.learningally.org/
Bookshare	Entire books K-12	Free! Good source for fiction books. Free players that highlight text as a digital voice reads to students. Does not require internet while listening to book. Free home use.	Computerized voice	Software must be downloaded and installed. You must be able to download book files. iPad app is coming. http://www.bookshare.org/
Audible	Entire books K-12	New books and best sellers read by actors and authors. Plays on a wide variety of players.	Must pay for each book	You must have a membership. www.audible.com/
Interlibrary Loan - SWIFT	Entire books K-12	Free. High quality recordings read by author or actor. Lots of Colorado specific authors.	Limited to Colorado library holdings. Can take a long time. Steep fees if you return it late	Must have a library card and set up account at the library first than you can access it online. Books are available as CDs and tapes depending on your needs. http://www.aclin.org/swift/
NetLibrary	Entire Books wide variety of books high school and above.	High quality recordings read by author or actor.	Can be complicated to put on mobile devices	Must have a library card and set up account at the library first than you can access it online. http://www.netlibrary.com/

OverDrive	Entire Books	High quality recordings read by author or actor.	Can be complicated to put on mobile devices	Must have a library card and set up account at the library first than you can access it online. Certain books are only available in certain formats. Need updated windows media player. Not a user friendly website. http://www.overdrive.com/
Marmot libraries	K-12	Download an audio book or e-book to your computer	Need overdrive to use on Mac. Limited libraries.	Marmot.org/node/2 for list of participating libraries. Need adobe for e-books.
Colorado Talking Books	K-12	Free, helpful customer service	Requires setup, audio only, no text	You need a player that they provide on loan to you. Can provide some access to periodicals. http://www.cde.state.co.us/ctbl/
Tumble books, tumble readables, tumble talking books	K-12	High quality recordings read by author or actor. Pictures. Highlights text. Free through anythinklibraries.org	Requires internet connection	Encourage you to have a library card with anythinklibraries but not currently required. http://www.anythinklibraries.org/24-7-library/articles-research-more scroll down to tumble books its alphabetical
Accessible Book Collection	K-12	Works with classroom suite	Paid subscription	May be funding available for students with disabilities. http://www.accessiblebookcollection.org/
Don Johnston Start to Finish Books	K-12	Provides both human voice audio and text highlighting	Books are expensive	A few titles are available through the SWAAAC loan bank. http://www.donjohnston.com/products/start_to_finish/library/index.html